

Listening

Transkrypcja i odpowiedzi

Audio 1 The New Hobby

Two months ago, my friend gave me an old acoustic guitar. I had never played any instrument before, so I started watching free video lessons on the Internet. At first, my fingers hurt a lot, but I practiced every evening after doing my homework. Yesterday, I finally learned how to play my favorite song. My parents were very surprised and happy when they heard it. Now, I hope to start a school band next year.

1. He had played the drum before he got the guitar. False
2. He usually practiced playing the guitar in the morning. False
3. He would like to create a music group at school. True

Audio 2 Moving to the Countryside

Last year, Mark's family left London and moved to a small village near the mountains. Mark was worried that life in the countryside would be boring. However, he quickly made new friends at his new school. Now, he spends a lot of time outdoors. Every Saturday, he goes cycling with his friends or walks in the forest. He says he prefers the fresh air here and doesn't miss the noisy traffic of the big city at all.

1. Mark used to live in London. True
2. He goes running with his friends. False
3. Mark still likes the busy streets of London. False

Audio 3 A Weekend Job

Sarah is sixteen years old and wants to earn some money for a summer holiday in Spain. That is why she started working at a local bookshop every Saturday. Her main job is to put new books on the shelves and help customers find what they need. She earns ten pounds an hour. She likes the job because the atmosphere is very quiet, and she can read popular novels during her lunch break.

1. Sarah wanted to have enough money for a holiday abroad. True
2. Sarah works at the bookshop three days a week. False
3. She enjoys reading books when she has a break from work. True

Audio 4 The Lost Dog

Last Tuesday, when Emily was walking home from school, she found a small, white dog in the park. The dog looked scared and didn't have a collar. Emily decided to take it home. She gave it some water and food, and then her dad posted a photo of the dog on Facebook. Two hours later, a woman called them. She was the owner and was crying with happiness. She came to collect her pet and gave Emily some delicious chocolate as a thank-you gift.

1. Emily found the dog while she was going to school. False
2. The dog was wearing a collar when Emily found it. False
3. The woman gave Emily something sweet to eat. True

Audio 5 A New Sports Centre

A brand new sports centre opened in our town last Monday. It has a modern gym, a large swimming pool, and three tennis courts. The ticket prices are quite low, and students get a fifty percent discount. I went there on Wednesday with my brother to try the pool. The water was warm and very clean. We enjoyed it so much that we decided to buy a monthly pass.

1. There are three swimming pools in the new sports centre. False
2. Students have to pay the full ticket price. False
3. The author and his brother want to visit the sports centre regularly. True