

Famous people - easy listening

Transkrypcja i odpowiedzi

Audio 1 Tim Berners-Lee

Tim Berners-Lee is a British computer scientist. He created the World Wide Web in 1989. His invention made it possible to connect documents on the Internet with links. Today, millions of people use the Web every day for work, education and entertainment.

1. Tim Berners-Lee comes from the USA. False
2. He created the World Wide Web. True
3. The Web is used by many people today. True

Audio 2 Amelia Earhart

Amelia Earhart was an American pilot. She became famous because she completed many important flights. She encouraged women to follow their dreams and become pilots. In 1937, she disappeared during a flight around the world.

1. Amelia Earhart was a pilot. True
2. She wanted to stop women from flying. False
3. She disappeared during a long journey. True

Audio 3 Alexander Fleming

Alexander Fleming was a British scientist. In 1928, he discovered penicillin, one of the first antibiotics. This discovery helped doctors save millions of lives. Penicillin is still an important medicine today.

1. Fleming was a scientist from Britain. True
2. He discovered a new planet. False
3. Penicillin helped many people. True

Audio 4 Harriet Tubman

Harriet Tubman was an American social activist. She helped many enslaved people escape to freedom in the nineteenth century. She also worked as a nurse and supported equal rights. Today, she is remembered as a brave and determined person.

1. Harriet Tubman helped enslaved people. True
2. She worked only as a teacher. False
3. She is remembered for her courage. True

Audio 5 Isambard Kingdom Brunel

Isambard Kingdom Brunel was a British engineer. He designed bridges, tunnels and railways. He also worked on large ships that were very modern for their time. His projects changed transport in Britain.

1. Brunel was an engineer. True
2. He designed railways and bridges. True
3. His work had no influence on transport. False

Audio 6 George Washington Carver

George Washington Carver was an American scientist and inventor. He studied plants and farming methods. He developed new ways to use crops such as peanuts and sweet potatoes. His work helped many farmers improve their lives.

1. Carver was interested in agriculture. True
2. He developed new uses for crops. True
3. His work was not useful for farmers. False